

PUBLIC LEDGER

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, APRIL 25, 1895.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free. Every notice is a loss to him over his counter free gift of dry goods or robes. A newspaper is a little business concern. Its products are its stock in trade, and advertising is its profit. It makes no matter in what part of this paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

Please, Sir! Letters for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following series:

For Notices of Births,

excessives, fares, or other public enter-tainments where a fee is charged, and for other notices of a like nature, respect, &c. The LEDGER will charge $1.00 a line, and thereafter $2.00 per line, and for the remainder of the space.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Advise of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The cost for Binding Books in The LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion, and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local insertion in the paper. The insertion is made, and the customer says to the bookkeeper, "But he took my book away." The bookkeeper says, "He took it for two months—no time—the bill is still there." The customer says, "He took it for a convenience, followed probably by an icy feeling." Now, to settle the dispute, the customer's notice will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a settlement at the outset, and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be received by 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going on a visit, please drop us a note to let us know.

Mrs. A. Finch and daughter, Miss May, are in Washington City.

Hon. Reuben Gudgel of Owingsville is in the city on professional business.

Mrs. A. H. Wall has returned from a visit to her daughter at Mt. Sterling.

Mrs. Garrett S. Wall and daughter, Miss Ethelene, are visiting at Cincinnati.

Mr. Will J. Kehoe of Washington City is spending a few days with his brothers here.

Mrs. W. H. Means visited her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Wall, at Flemingsburg this week.

L. B. Gray and family and Mrs. A. J. Williams are spending the day in Cincinnati.

Mr. F. Stanley Watson came in last night from a business trip through West Virginia.

Mrs. Kate Burlingame of St. Louis is visiting her sister, Mrs. B. W. Goodman in this city.

Mrs. John Dyer of Marietta, O., is here attending the McNamara-O'Donnell trials.

Captain J. H. Myers of this city is the guest of Mr. H. A. Kackley and family at Flemingsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy of Flemingsburg came down last night to attend the McNamara-O'Donnell trials.

Mr. Thomas Fitzgerald, Miss Mary and Ellen Fitzgerald and Miss Courtney of Cincinnati attended the Fitzgerald-Kane funerals in this city yesterday.

William A. Sellman is his name.

Tell me of your trials—
And wrath is meted to the Scribe
In double-shoted vises.

He ought to have taken a club.

Tells us what a saint he's been,
And now, like Cain, is dead.
And never, till he's dead, here,
Did give himself a rest.

His own testimony convicted him.

Now, while his words are not akin
To those of milk and honey,
He got his name right plumb in print
Without a cent of money.

And that was all he wanted.

Harry Graham, aged about 14, residing in the Sixth Ward, met with a painful accident at W. B. Mathews & Co.'s Saw-mills yesterday afternoon. He was working about the lathe saw, and the belt slipping off he reached across the saw to replace it. In so doing the saw cut his arm near the wrist, making an ugly and painful though not a dangerous wound. Dr. A. Reed and Dr. Yessell dressed the injury.

LYRIC COMPLAINT.

A less more sweet
You will not pass
In any street—
Ains!

II
A miss above
All dreams of bliss,
She takes my love
Ains!

—J. Russell Taylor.
